MERGER WITH TYE ASSOCIATES

We are delighted to announce that Baillie Chartered Certified Accountants has merged with another local firm, Tye Associates of Church Stretton.

The purpose of the combined firm is to provide existing clients with continuity of service and to increase our capacity to take on new clients by offering additional resource, skills and a greater collective knowledge.

MORE ABOUT THE MERGER WITH TYE ASSOCIATES

The merger will be effective from 1st March 2015, we are really excited about the opportunity to work with and support a new group of clients and staff. Tye Associates has been part of the local business community in Church Stretton for 30 years and we are fully committed to continuing and enhancing that relationship.

We aim to provide local businesses with brilliant service, pro-active advice and great value for money

Some questions and answers.

Q: Will there be any immediate changes?

A: Yes, with effect from 1st March 2015, to avoid confusion the combined business will be called Baillie Accountants, the existing telephone number will remain the same.

Q: What benefits will the merger bring to local businesses and individuals?

A: Plenty! Please see overleaf for details of the services and support we are able to offer local businesses and individuals

Q: Will the Church Stretton Office stay where it is?

A: Yes, we are totally committed to remaining in our Churchway offices for the long term and we are undertaking a refurbishment of the offices which will not impact client services.

Q: Will there be any fee uplift as a result of the merger?

A: No, the only time client fees would change is if there is a change to service requirements or if inflationary pressures force it

Q: Will there be any staffing changes?

A: No, the current team will remain in place and will be joined by additional staff to create a larger team with a greater collective knowledge

HOW WE CAN HELP YOU?

Strategic business planning

Do you have an existing business or are looking to start up a new business? If so please come in and see us. We can help you identify your business objectives and assist with development plans that can deliver your aims. Unlike most Accountants in practice our partners have real commercial business experience so we are well placed to assist you.

Minimise your tax liabilities

Think you are paying too much tax or want a second opinion? If so, please arrange an appointment, we would be happy to review your current position and give you an honest opinion.

As experienced Chartered Certified Accountants we are able to advise on tax planning opportunities that could save you £000's. Our knowledge of legitimate rates and allowances and business structures could ensure that you retain more of your hard earned money.

Taking care of all your compliance requirements

As a business owner and tax payer you have certain legal obligations that need to be taken care of. We offer a complete range of compliance services, such as Accounts production for sole traders, partnerships and limited companies; Preparation and submission of personal and business tax returns; Payroll bureau services, payslips, year end and RTI reporting; Filing accounts with Companies House; Dealing with HMRC on your behalf; VAT returns and advice on schemes; Tax advice on Capital Gains, Inheritance Tax and Income Tax.

Great value fixed monthly fees

Nervous about how much your accountancy bill will be and whether you can afford to pay it? Fear not, at Baillie Accountants we offer great value, affordable fixed fee packages so that you know exactly how much you will pay and what is covered.

FREE general business advice

All clients of Baillie Accountants receive unlimited general business advice, so you can call us, e-mail us or drop in whenever you like and there is no additional cost! Specific services, such as the development of a business plan would be subject to a separate fee, but again this would be fixed and agreed upfront.

Money back service level guarantee

Our service level guarantee ensures that you receive a top notch service. If you are not entirely happy with our service and your point is valid, we will refund an appropriate portion of your fee.

Registered Member firm of ACCA

Baillie Accountants are a member firm of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) which provides you with the assurance that we have the experience and ability to deliver the services you need.

If your Accountant is not registered to practice with either ACCA or ICAEW, or if you have been approached by an Accountant without this designation we would strongly advise you to switch or avoid them.
